ABOUT AGRi 2025

Magnus Group is honored to announce the "5th Edition of the Global Conference on Agriculture and Horticulture" (Agri 2025), which will be held in a Hybrid Mode. Scheduled for September 8-10, 2024, in Valencia, Spain, this three-day event offers the flexibility to attend either in-person in Valencia or virtually from your home or workplace. Agri 2025 revolves around the theme "Global Advances in Agricultural and Horticultural Sciences." As emerging trends in agriculture continue to evolve, new technologies and strategies are becoming increasingly sophisticated. Over the past several decades, the agriculture sector has experienced significant changes, with technological advancements playing a crucial role. This conference brings together researchers, academics, and industry professionals to share and discuss global research findings, providing a platform for networking and collaboration. Agri 2025 is a pivotal event for advancing cutting-edge research in agriculture, fostering interdisciplinary communication, and enhancing modern agricultural approaches.
